

The Twitch

With a kaleidoscope of talent, this four-piece band from Vancouver, Canada are what pure pedigree rock is all about. With Joe Kynoch on vocals, Mike Sheeshka on guitars, Steve Stone on bass and Tony U on drums, they bring together over 30 years of experience as musicians and gifted songwriters. For Joe Kynoch, the bands lead singer, music is "The art we all love - I see it as the earth, the moon, the stars, the sun". Its easy to say that these guys are certainly doing what they love and that the love is the best kind that only comes from being part of the best era to be alive, the sixties and seventies!

Heavily influenced by this era, the band takes their inspiration from the world's all time internationally renowned bands, including; The Beatles, Nirvana, Led Zeppelin, The Clash, The Sex Pistols, The Rolling Stones and Aerosmith. These guys are a blend of all these legends and more, rolled into one great package called The Twitch.

Their songs continue to receive airplay on over 300 radio stations in over 45 countries. In January 2009 they completed their latest tracks, "No, No, No" and "Run, Run, Run", which have just been released to the world through Blue Pie. You can view their video clip of "No, No, No" on Youtube.com

Check out the band's album releases; "Surf's Up", "Blue Water", "Friends", "Experience" and their most recent release in 2008, the "The Rising Sun". All albums are being sold and distributed online locally and internationally at: emusic.com, Itunes and through mybluepiemusic.com.

When The Twitch came together in 2002, they began by touring the west coast of the United States through the summer making many appearances at festivals and concerts in BC (British Columbia, Canada). Some of these included Chilliwacks Retrofest in 2005 and in BC on July 31 2005, they were backing up Rick Deringer, The Edgar Winter Band, Jefferson Starship, Blue Oyster Cult and It's A Beautiful Day. 2005 was a particularly busy year for The Twitch who were then also nominated for "Original Band of 2005" at the Cameo Music Awards.

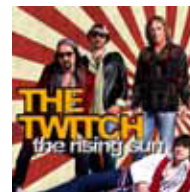

Constantly touring around the world and blowing young minds away, The Twitch is here now, happening and reaching a new generation all over the world!

Peace Out!
